Hello At Home!

This week teachers are immersed in classroom set up and professional development at school. Families are invited to virtual open houses. Unfortunately, we cannot meet in person the way we hoped to for a traditional Open House/ Meet and Greet. However, classroom teachers, special education and related arts teachers all are hosting virtual open houses. It will be a chance to share introductions, say "hello" and begin to feel more acquainted with one another. Teachers will connect with you via an email or post information on their website with "link to" directions in advance.
